

Nabeela Al Khayer – painter

ARTIST Nabeela Al Khayer's canvas displays the relationship between a woman and her love for jewellery. Her expressive feminine portraits, which are set in warm colours shows how women enhance their beauty by using gems and gold from times immemorial.

Taking inspiration from Bahrain and its heritage Nabeela's women are naturally beautiful, joyous and full of strength. She believes that a woman's inherent strength is only enhanced with the use of precious metal and stones.

She said: "Jewellery is fascinating. It's an object of joy and comfort to women and it also adds to their beauty and enhances their looks. It also holds immense traditional and sentimental value."

Nabeela has previously taken part in several group and solo exhibitions in Kuwait, Cairo, Sharjah, Morocco and Bahrain. She will be showing several of her works at the Artlounge 2.
